

I am born and raised in Waterville Maine and have lived here for almost my whole life. I am currently in my mid 30's. I have two daughters and raised them as a single mom up until two years ago. I enjoy the outdoors and trying new things. Hiking, kayaking, Gardening and reading are on the top of my list of favorite things to do. I am active in my life and enjoy the busy life style I have taken on.